DUNMORE DOINGS

COAL PRICES MOVE UPWARD ONCE MORE.

Report That the Entire Product of the Mowey-Wilson Company Has Been Sold at the Breaker at $4 Per Ton—It is to Be Shipped to the New England States—Annual Meeting of the Epworth League to Be Held Tonight—Other Interesting News Notes.

Again have the local prices of coal gone skyward. Chestnut coal at the Carney & Brown colliery was yesterday quoted at $4 at the breaker, a raise of 50 cents per ton since Saturday, while J. J. Gibbons was asking $3 at the mines and both places were besieged from early morning until late at night with an endless stream of teams anxious to get the coal at any price.

It is currently reported that the Mowey-Wilson company have sold the entire output of their mine, for some time to come, at $4 per ton at the breaker. The coal is being drawn to Scranton, where it is placed in cars and shipped to the New England states. Coal is being drawn from the old fill at No. 11, a distance of fully five miles and placed in cars for shipment.

Annual Meeting.

This evening the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold its annual meeting in the league parlors. The retiring officers will make their annual reports. During the year the league has published five hundred cook books and purchased a new carpet for the Sunday school room in the church, besides carrying on the more purely religious work of the chapter.

A special effort is being made to finish selling the cook books and paying for the carpet before the close of the year. All those who have been selling cook books and the five Junior League girls, Rena Spencer, Sarah Tresler, Grace Connell, Josephine Greaves and Leta Packard, who have been collecting money for the carpet, will make their final reports. An opportunity will be given to the members to pay their dues. A musical and literary programme will be given and light refreshments served free. All are welcome.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

Fred Dodge, of Pittsburg, is spending a few days with his father on Williams street. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gagle and family, of New Haven, Conn., are visiting in town. Miss Carrie Brewster, of Hartford, has returned to her home after a visit with Miss Lucy Hall, of Church street.

THEATRICAL.

The Glibney Stock Company.

The popular Glibney Stock Company opened their New Year's week engagement at the Academy of Music yesterday to two good sized and thoroughly pleased audiences, in spite of the disagreeable weather conditions.

The company this year is a large and meritorious one, and includes, beside Morgan Glibney, Lafayette McKee, D. E. Grindell, Lou Harrington, Fred L. Gidding, Miss Alice Davis, Miss Gertrude Harrington, Little Miss Belle Fowler and a number of other clever people. The specialty features are numerous and of an unusually high order, including Russell & Barber, in illustrated songs; Wilson & Leicester, in a burlesque on "The Sign of the Cross"; a wooden show dancing comedian; Burke & Russell, character comedians, singers and dancers; and the biograph, "Shadow Detective," and tonight, "Angie, the Country Girl."

The company will be at the Star this and tomorrow afternoons and nights.

Frohman's Empire Theatre Company.

"Yes, if even a wicked woman falls gently in love, she will become a good woman." The above quotation is the pretty text upon which H. V. Edmond has based the love interest of his new play "The Wilderness," which will be presented for the first time in this city by Frohman's Empire Theatre company at the Lyceum Wednesday evening.

The play comes here with the prestige of an entire season run at George Alexander's theatre in London, and of nearly the entire season of the Empire Theatre Company at their home playhouse in New York last winter.

The company is an exceptionally well-balanced one this season and includes in addition to the principals already named, William Cartwright, W. C. Crompton, E. B. Lawrence, D'Orsay, George Osborne, Jr., Frank Brownlee, Miss Ethel Horneik, Mrs. Thomas Whiffen, Mrs. W. G. Jones, Kate Pattison-Selton, Miss Lillian Turner, Miss Alice, Miss Margaret, Miss Kittie Harris, Miss Amy Meers, and Master Donald Gallagher. Seats now on sale.

Sale for James O'Neil.

James O'Neil has, it is said, secured in his new play, "Monte Christo," which is to be presented at the Lyceum New Year's matinee and night, an even greater melodrama than was his famous old success "Monte Christo."

The play tells a thrilling story of love, heroism and devotion. Mr. O'Neil impersonates the character of Peter Quilliam. It is said to be a role suited alike to his talents and his personality, and one of the strongest character impersonations ever seen on the American stage.

Mr. O'Neil's managers, Liebler & Co., have surrounded him with a splendid supporting cast, and the production in scenery and costumes, is said to be gorgeous in the extreme.

Bertha Galland coming to the Lyceum Friday evening in "Notre Dame," which is worth telling. It is that acting ability frequently manifests itself where least expected. She had just returned from a shopping expedition in New York (she was playing "Brooklyn") when she was met by her wraps by the hallway of her home. There was a ring of the bell and the actress opened the door herself. There stood a woman whose rich coloring of complexion and dress pronounced her newly-arrived from Italy.

The woman looked so longly appealing in Italian, and the idea conveyed was that she and the child had been in New York only a few days and were sadly in need of food. With practical ideas as to nutritious food, Miss Galland soon had a nice supper prepared for the child, who, she thought, had not spoken a word; then with a twinkle in his eye and an unmistakable dialect caught from his short association with the lowering, he piped, "Say, Miss, can't yer put some sugar in yer flour?"

Seats on sale Wednesday at 9 a. m.

STAGE NOTES.

When Charles Frohman's Empire Theatre company returns to the Empire theatre in January they will produce "The Unforeseen," a new play by Robert Marshall, author of "A Royal Family," "His Excellency the Governor," and "Second in Command." Margaret Anglin and Charles Richman will play the leading parts.

To give proper musical atmosphere, a Hungarian cymbalists and other Hungarian musicians will be part of the orchestra at the production of R. A. Barnett's musical play, "Baron Homburg," which will be presented at the Lyceum theatre, a native of Hungary, is of noble birth and delights in the memories of his acquaintance at Budapest with Franz Liszt and the noted Hungarian writer, Maurus Jokai.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Dec. 29.—Speculative sentiment today showed greater sensitiveness to the developments in the call money market than was the case last week when a 15 per cent. rate was practically ignored. Today, when money opened at 10 per cent., with an advancing tendency, prices broke sharply all around.

The largest selling of the week was distributed to the pools which were credited with causing last week's advance in prices and the market, but when money rose again to 15 per cent. prices of stocks promptly yielded. The altered sentiment toward the money market, is believed to have been the cause of the decline of the banks and to the calling in of loans.

The market was characterized by a prompt relaxation in the money market, owing to the disbursement of funds accumulated to pay dividends and interest. Even this party is wary of a possible setback in money, but the general tendency to ease and these besides this, a widespread sentiment by another speculative party, has caused a decline in the supply of credits are operating to hold back prices. The belief that there will be a general rise in money rates after the end of the year also, is a factor in the market.

From a general view of the market, it is believed that the market will be characterized by a prompt relaxation in the money market, owing to the disbursement of funds accumulated to pay dividends and interest. Even this party is wary of a possible setback in money, but the general tendency to ease and these besides this, a widespread sentiment by another speculative party, has caused a decline in the supply of credits are operating to hold back prices.
